

AUGUST DAILY VOICE

August 1 LIGHTEN UP

Lighten up. Love and laugh. On your dark days start laughing and the sun will shine. When all about you are frowning, love will enter the picture if you can smile You take the power away from difficult answers or suggestions when you smile. When you smile you see into the hearts of those around you. Let me, your inner I AM spirit, be your interpreter; then smile and let me speak through and as you. Simple tasks done in the spirit of love and laughter will move mountains of fear and oceans of depression from the minds of all those you meet. Lighten up and watch how love heals. Have fun being love.

August 2 EXPRESS YOUR DIVINE PURPOSE

No matter whether it looked good or bad at the time, I AM whatever it was that pushed you into experiencing your higher consciousness. There are no accidents. You are what you are today because of everything that has happened to you in the past. No matter what is taking place at this moment it has a divine purpose. Know that your dry periods as well as your juicy ones are here for a reason, and soon you will be shown what it is and feel fully at home in your divine I AMness. Trust that I AM your life and let go. I AM appearing as you, and I will always fulfill your divine purpose -- your way, your truth, and your life.

August 3 PRAY FOR MY ANSWER

Once more I tell you to work with what is at hand. Do not ignore your concerns or those places that you believe need to be healed. Admit your concerns, but do not ask to overcome them, because by asking to overcome them you make them real and you give them power. Instead, pray. Prayer is an experience of trust in the divine process. Prayer is the experience of my presence. Pray to experience yourself as a divine human; pray that your faith holds firm; pray for my answer. Then when you have experienced your center, your problems will go away or you will hear what I AM instructing you to do about them. You are your answer.

August 4 CALL ON YOUR HEART CENTER

You have arms like the cross that reach out into the world of good and evil appearances. One to the right and one to the left. Also, like the cross, you extend vertically reaching up to heaven with your spirit yet humanly your feet are anchored on earth. At your center, where the human and the divine come together, is your heart, your heart center. At that point there is no good or evil, up or down. There all is one. The Cross symbolizes your divine/human wholeness. Call on your heart consciousness. Open yourself to life at that cross point where the spirit and the flesh meet. I AM that point. I AM ever you, no matter where you are.

August 5 BE KNOWING

Be still and know. Knowing is not a matter of thinking; it is a matter of listening, of experiencing, and of being. When anxieties and fears are stilled, you can feel my presence and know that I AM God and that I AM your life. Be still for one moment. Experience my presence in quietness and with confidence. Stop thinking and feel my presence. Then you will know me even in your humanity. When I AM experienced you will be free of all limitation and all negativity. Think not. Just be still, and know that the I AM of you is God being you.

August 6 OVERCOME

When I was Jesus and said, “I have overcome the world,” I wasn’t talking about myself as a body but myself as my consciousness. I didn’t mean that I as a person had become more powerful than the world. I meant that through my Christ consciousness I was in control of my mind, and by being in control of my mind I had overcome the world of good and evil. If you can control your thoughts the world can’t touch you or make you feel apart from the divine Self that I AM. That is why I don’t want you to leave the human scene, but I do want you to be my mind and my presence in the world. That is what you are here for. When you are in your higher consciousness you, too, have overcome the world. Come on over.

August 7 WORSHIP SPIRIT

God is spirit, and if you want to worship at the divine center within yourself you must worship there in spirit and in truth. Worship takes place when you have actually experienced the Spirit. Spirit cannot be bought by thought. It can only be felt and experienced. First feel or imagine the present of Spirit in yourself. Then see the spirit of love re-presenting itself to the world in the form of your presence. When you do that I, the spirit of love, will be you. I AM the truth. I AM the spirit that you are. Feel me, experience me, worship me, the Spirit within you, and you are worshipping God. Feel the spirit of love, and when you do you are the very presence of God. Love conquers all. There is no other way.

August 8 MAKE SPACE

I have given you another delicious pure and creative day. Do not mess it up by hanging on to any of yesterday's concerns. All those meaningful places where you feel that you have fallen short in the past are forgiven. In the twinkling of an eye, the slate is clean. That is my gift for you today, a clean slate. Make space for it. You cannot be aware of me until you have opened a way within for you to receive me. You have done it so many times before; so now, once more, let go of all old baggage and let me, your Christ self, shine forth. Then, as one, we will see the Promised Land on this pure and wonderful day.

August 9 SEE THAT IT'S ALL GOD

Can't you see? If God, your higher consciousness, has brought I AM awareness into your life and understanding, then that same consciousness has brought everything else as well - - even your moments of confusion. See those moments as being neither forces of good or forces of evil. Their purpose is to teach you how to consistently select the truth over error until it becomes your constant and natural choice. Everything is your higher consciousness leading you to choose to live as a spiritual being in a human form. Take the "and" out of good and evil and you will see that I AM all that you are. Rejoice, it is all God.

August 10 FEEL THE RIPPLES

Pray that your experience of my presence, the Christ spirit, be in your consciousness around the clock -- not just at this moment. Your willingness to take the I AM spirit with you out into the world is similar to what happens when you drop a stone on a lake. When a strong enough splash is made, the ripples will spread out over your whole day, touching every person you meet and every experience you have. See and feel the ripples of love radiating out from you every moment all day. If that feeling of my presence begins to fade, remind yourself of who you are - I AM. Drop some more love into your consciousness, and watch the ripples spread. I AM you always in all ways.

August 11 BREAK THE LAW

Laugh. Go on. Laugh out loud. Laughter heals. Once more, laughter heals because it breaks the law of appearances. Laughter sees appearances as fantasies. It does not take them seriously. You cannot laugh at appearances and also take them seriously at the same time. When appearances are not feared, they lose their power. Do not ignore appearances laugh at them, but laugh with love, because when you laugh you are saying that all is God, no matter how it appears. Even if there is no one to hear you laugh. Laugh, love, and break the laws of anxiety or depression. Laugh, and you open your door to me, your spirit. Laugh and love as the spiritual being you are.

August 12 LET LIFE DESIGN YOU

Don't believe it when you hear that you have no life of your own. You do have a life of your own. It is God life. However, when you think that you are responsible for your life your belief can be your ego trying to convince you that it rather than God is your life. No. The truth is that you do have a life - but not of your own design. I AM the divine plan of your life. Think not in terms of your personal needs. I, your higher consciousness, will design your days and your nights, your comings and our goings. As you, I AM all ways bringing what ever you personally need into your presence. Trust my divine design for your life and take no thought for your tomorrow.

August 13 BE FOR GIVING

Give. Give. Give. My life as Jesus and Buddha, as well as all those other spiritual guides that you feel have fed you, stands for giving. I, your Christ spirit, have become your consciousness so that you might have life and might have it more abundantly to give. All that you have been given means nothing if you, yourself, are not now consciously giving. The secret is that you can only give what you have to give, and you have so much to give. You have all that I AM. You are rich in spirit. You have received much. Now give much. Now think only of how and where you can give, and all you have to give will flow forth abundantly. Forgiving is for giving. Give, give, give.

August 14 DON'T LET IT

If you feel a sense of disturbance or of something not right creeping in it is of your own acceptance you have to watch out for. If you are tempted to believe in powers apart from your own resources, refuse to do it. You do not have to let the world affect you. You make your own destiny, and by doing so you are not a helpless victim of circumstances. When you once more realize that there is no power over you that is not of your own creation then your awareness of me, your higher consciousness, will return. It is your choice. You can choose to accept what you want to accept. Do it!

August 15 HAVE A GRATEFUL HEART

My home is a grateful heart. Your heart is not a physical organ. It is your soul. That is where I live. That is where you will find me. When you do, you will find yourself. Your grateful heart lifts the veil and reveals love as the only cause. I AM grateful for being you. When you, too, are grateful for your unique and wonderful Self, you are at home with me. When you are grateful for being who you are, you are loving me, your divine human self. Be conscious of your gratitude for having a great and full heart, and you will be in love with life.

August 16 THINK PURPOSE

Wrap up some loose ends, if you wish, but then let go of your concerns. This is the time for you to go beyond problems to a different level. Don't think about results. Think about purpose.

Think of being full of faith, full of trust, and full of the spirit of love. It is a paradox, but when your purpose is for you to drop all concern for the problems of the world, they will then be resolved by your Christ consciousness. You don't have to do anything. Just feel that all your concerns have already been dissolved, and then you will shortly discover they have been. Do not try to use faith. Let your purpose be to be used "by" faith, and that is what will be. I love you.

August 17 CHOSE

Like Martha, at times you are anxious and troubled about many things. When that happens remember that you are also Mary; so you can choose the better way. Do not once more choose fear or personal concerns. Put them aside, and then by an act of your will choose love, joy, and a feeling of peace. You are in charge. Nothing has power over you; so choose my Spirit. Your anxiety is not personal. You have just once more allowed yourself to accept the World's collective disturbance. No blame. That is not your true being. I AM. Through me you have the power of choice. Choose to recognize that my presence is your consciousness.

August 18 BREAK THROUGH

When Buddha consciousness evolved I came into the visible world as Gothma the Buddha. When the Christ consciousness evolved, I came into the world as Jesus the Christ. In this century I AM taking form as you and those others who will become the critical mass that will transform all humankind. That is why you are here. You didn't come into life at this time by accident. You are one of those divinely human breakthrough people who are here to show the way to others. The very fact that each day you join with me, your divine consciousness, proves it. Why else would you stick to it all these years as you have? You can be, you will be, and you are the presence that I AM.

August 19 REVEAL

There is no such thing as your bringing about a healing. But you can bring on a revealing. When the true nature of a situation or a person is revealed it appears as a healing. Any sense of mental or physical dis-ease has been a temporary ignorance of my presence waiting for the truth to be revealed. I AM always with you, and I AM always appearing as you. It is your time to turn around in all your glory and reveal that you are as I AM. Whenever and wherever you encounter discard or loneliness, I AM there to reveal the truth. Now reveal yourself to the world. Do not try to heal or change anyone or anything. Just reveal my presence as your presence.

August 20 OPEN A WAY IN

Your mind is the door to your heart. I want to be felt in your heart, but I, your divine consciousness, can only come in if your thoughts open the way for the experience of my presence. Examine the spirit inherent in the thoughts you are experiencing; how you let them come about, and whether thoughts about which your spirit feels good. You hold the key. Reject all thoughts that include the spirit of fear or concern. Release or forgive every appearance of a disquieting nature.

The way you open your mind is by impersonalising the cause of your thoughts, then purifying and illuminating them. Prepare the way, and then in quietness and confidence I will come.

August 21 HONOR YOURSELF

As a human being you don't express God -- God expresses you. God is your higher consciousness, and that I AM consciousness which you are glorifies itself as who you are in the world. It does it in the same way that it did for me when I was Jesus. There is only one Son of God, and that Son is a state of consciousness that is present wherever and whenever an individual is being the presence of God. When you are aware that your presence is the presence of God you are showing true humility. In that spirit honor yourself. Your name is written in Heaven. Honor it gloriously.

August 22 KEEP YOUR EYE THE GOAL

The road never seems to end. Do you feel like you have been going in circles? If you feel that many times before you have passed by where you are now don't be discouraged. All travelers get weary of apparently having to learn the same lessons over and over. That is why I AM here. Keep your eyes on the goal, on total union with me, your creator Self, not on the road. The road is not flat. It is a spiral. Though you may not realize it, each round takes you higher. When you need a hand, a presence to lean on, I AM there with you. I, as Jesus, also got weary and had to rest. I, too, called on God, my higher consciousness, for restoration. So can you, because I AM you.

August 23 TALK TO YOURSELF

In these moments we have together you are really talking to yourself. This is the time when you as a human being seek to converse with your higher consciousness. Get your personal self to talk to your higher Spirit self. When it answers you will experience your own Christ self. When all is said and done, I AM you; so talk to me. I will answer. Prayer is the time when your personal sense of self talks to your impersonal self. When that happens your own higher consciousness will talk back to you. In that way you have access to all that I AM. Talk to me. Then listen to me, and be fully who you are, the divine appearing as your human self.

August 24 GO FROM “IN” TO “AS”

The single most important step you can take in life is to go from “in” to “as.” You have spent years wanting to feel God within yourself. You have begged God to be in your life, but to the extent that you have thought of God as being “in” you, you have denied what God is and who you are. God can’t come to you because God is already all that you are within and without. There are not two. You are not a thing with something in it. God isn’t just in you. God is also appearing “as” you. God is “as” everything and that everything is you, God appearing as you. See it.

August 25 HONOR YOUR IMPORTANCE

Because you look forward to these daily moments that we have together it lets you know that I AM stirring within you. This is the time when you allow my love to pour forth to your open heart. When you experience my presence it proves that my life as Jesus was not been in vain. You are our success. Realize who you are and be proud of it. You now know that your importance is not because of your worldly accomplishments. It is because you have experienced that I AM alive in you and as you. You know it, and I know it. Rejoice.

August 26 TAKE THE FINAL STEP

As you still the storm within, I, your God self, stills the storm without. Storms are temptations to fear. As you resist the temptation to fear, you show that you have become fully aware of whom you are. A new life has opened before you. My Kingdom consciousness is yours. Take this final step: know that you have arrived. See yourself being at the end of your search for yourself. All your past problems were only temptations trying to make you believe in a life apart from the God life that is your divine humanity. Trust and go forward unafraid knowing that my grace is now fully living your life. You are free at last. Finally you are all that I AM.

August 27 GO FORWARD

Just when you think you are beyond temptation it pops up again. Temptation does not die easily. It comes in subtle ways. One of the most persistent ways for temptation to appear is for you to be tempted to look back. Do not let doubt turn your gaze backward. You are so close; oh, so close! Once more, put all in my hands. Feel your divine I AM presence supporting you, preparing you, answering your call. You have made no mistakes because every step has been necessary, and exactly what was needed. There are no coincidences. Be thankful for every turn. Do not look back. Go forward. In quietness and confidence is your strength. Nothing will block you now. My glory is yours.

August 28 FOLLOW THE LEADER

My love, I AM always guiding you. Since you first put your foot on the path, it was I who led you. Finally you have come to realize that the I that was leading you is your own I AM Christ-consciousness -- your own Christ awareness. Your Christ is returning home. You are drawing yourself to the light. You are both the light of the world, and the light that has been leading you. Your own Christ consciousness will continue to guide you until the day when, despite appearances or troublesome actions, you consciously know that we are one at every moment.

August 29 STOP SEEING DIFFERENCES

Sometimes when you are not sure what to do it will shut your ego up if you stop and realize that you are involved with differences. The world will keep on turning and God will continue to be all that God is despite what looks like differences. In God there are no differences. Every time you are tempted to try to once more take responsibility for your life remember that God is all there is and in God there are no differences. Remember that I AM you and there is no difference between us. No matter what thoughts come into your head, good ones or bad ones, in the end they will make no difference because I AM all there is. Just smile and be. Come.

August 30 OPEN AND LOOK

I come in whatever way you need me. If you need a person, I come as that person. If you need guidance I will speak to you in the voice of Jesus, Buddha, Mohamed, or any enlightened consciousness that you reach for within your self. If you need my Spirit, I will come as peace or forgiveness. If you need assurance, I will come as release from fear. Do not look outside of yourself for anything. I come from within your own being. I AM the answer. I AM your higher self. We are One and the same. Look to the Christ of your being, and then you will see that I AM behind what was a closed door. I AM the imprisoned splendor. Look there.

Aug. 31 USE EVERY THING

Do not blame yourself at those times when you once more have anxious thoughts or unwanted concerns. Never feel you have failed. You are an infinite being, and, as such, you include every possible thought or feeling that you could possibly have. Negative thoughts are there for a purpose. Use them and you can learn from them, but do not let them use you. Dominion means for you to use everything and be used by nothing. Never resist evil because when you do evil uses you. Your resistance gives it power. I AM here to use those negative thoughts and anxieties by turning them into love and purpose.
