

June Daily Voice

June 1 TAKE THE ROYAL ROAD

There is no decision so big, no mistake so apparent, and no direction so frightening that it cannot immediately be turned over to me, your inner guide. The smallest as well as the largest disagreements will be put aside as long as all judgments are put aside. All it takes is for you to renew your commitment to live by the grace that I AM, not by looking for powers outside of yourself to overcome evil. This instant turn everything over to me, and I, your divine I AM self, will lead you to the royal road of grace. As you become a beholder you will enter my house, my consciousness, and my peace I will give unto you. Behold, I AM.

June 2 BEWARE OF BECAUSE

Can't you feel it? You are so close to the peace and freedom that you have sought for all of your life. Consciously once more enter my invisible presence. You cannot see me with your eyes - the Christ way of life that I AM - but you can feel me because you have experienced my presence so many times. You are living the Christ life when you give up the word "because." "Because" implies that my peace is dependent on something you have to earn; that it will come because of something you do. Grace and joy are the nature of your true being. They are my gift. You do not earn them because of anything that you have yet to do or think. Just accept them. I AM your only because.

June 3 GIVE UP

You may doubt it, but I, your I AM consciousness, know how close you are to divine illumination this very minute. No matter what concerns or anxieties you may still be feeling give them up. Do not analyze what you are feeling. Stop trying to understand it. Your concerns are the only thing that keeps you from experiencing my presence. No matter what your concerns are about, they have no power except the power that you have given them by hanging on to them. Let them go. If they still block the way, there is one more thing that you can do. You can be thankful for them. Difficulties purge you and keep you growing so be thankful for them and then give them up. Give them to me, and you will be free.

June 4 STOP IT

Stop. Stop looking for me. Your looking denies that I am already present. Stop trying to be free. You already are free. As long as you keep searching your search keeps you from seeing that you are here with me this minute. When you do not feel my presence, do not think you must do something to make it happen. I AM always with and as you, and it is my good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. Just hold my spirit hand. Let me heal you. Let our love join us together. Smile. I love it when you smile. A smile is your body's way of letting me know you love me as I AM. Smile.

June 5 GO BEYOND THE MASK

What you see in the mirror is your God given mask, a mask that hides you from those who are unable to see the “you” that lives behind your mask of personality. Rejoice that you have a mask. It protects you from those who are unable to see the real you, but you, yourself, look beyond the mask to the perfect creation of God that you are. Go beyond any feeling of limitation into a sense of the infinite all that I, your true self, AM. Walk in your fullness. That is your rightful place, and that is who shines forth at those times when you remove the mask and reveal your true face, the face of love. Let the world see who you are.

June 6 LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE

You know that all disease, all suffering, and all lack are forms of darkness. You also know that healings take place when you bring light into the dark. You know that when you are the light darkness disappears. Because I AM the truth of your being you are the light of the world. Do not try to get rid of the dark; just let your light shine. That is how you heal disease or transform a difficult situation. See yourself as the light, feel your light, be your light, and let it shine. Remember, the light does not choose upon whom to shine or where to shine. Your light will shine for all no matter where you are or what circumstances you are in. You are the light of the world. Shine.

June 7 ACCEPT YOURSELF

There is only one life, one way, one intelligence, and one presence infinitely yet individually expressing itself. I AM that, and you are that which I AM. You are me, and I AM you. You have always been me, and I have always been you, because there is but one Spirit being itself. Accept it. Accept me. Accept yourself. You are the Christ, and as the Christ you have no life other than my life. You are Jesus, John, Buddha, and all the saints and sinners of all time rolled into one, for there is only One, and you are that One. Accept your one Self.

June 8 CHASE FEAR

This world is tricky. Even though you have come such a long way it will still try to pull you back into ignorance. Subtly accepted fear is the devil/mind's greatest weapon. Chase the tiniest trace of fear out of your mind, because fear and your love of me, your Christ self, cannot co-exist. Fear is the anti-Christ. It denies that you have that within you that will continue to make your life the grace-filled glory it has been and always will be. When fear no longer insinuates itself in subtle ways, you will know without a doubt that your faith in yourself is pure; you will know that I, your Christ self, AM your way, your truth, and your life.

June 9 LET GO

No matter how far you have stretched, you cannot cross all the way over until you have completely let go of the old in order to step into the new. Step out into the universe of the invisible. That means for you to no longer feel you need the promise of security or a reliance on anything visible. See the pure, white flower of Spirit opening within your soul. If you want to know the secret of self-love, that's it. You can do it. See the Spirit of grace within living you; see it living your life completely.

When you do that you will completely love yourself. Total trust is the sign of total self-love. Trust is confidence in your Self, that Self which I AM.

June 10 CHANGE THE PROJECTOR

You cannot heal, change, or alter the human scene. Stop trying. What you see is a projection. Like a moving picture, everything you see is a projection of your own creating. Do not try to change the projection! Change the projector! As long as there is an annoying person, place, or situation that concerns you, you are still hanging onto a judgment that you have projected. When you resist or try to change what you see you just increase its power. Change the projector, your consciousness, and you will see that my Kingdom is right here on earth. When you stop seeing things in terms of good and bad, you will see that I AM all that is.

June 11 RESIST TEMPTATION

Here they go again. Anxieties and concerns are once more trying to demand your attention. Don't forget, you have already turned them over to me, your higher consciousness. Do not be tempted to take them back. Remember what happened to Lot's wife when she did. There is only one thing that you must watch out for: the temptation for you to once more be concerned or fearful about anything. Each fear represents the belief that there is a power apart from your own divine humanity, that which I AM. Everything is in divine order.

June 12 BE MY FUNNEL

Do you know what your purpose is on earth? It is for you to convert spirit into matter, consciousness into form, love into action. Be not afraid. It isn't up to your human self alone. Invisibly, you are wide-open to infinity like the top of a funnel. Your physical presence represents the spout of the funnel where my I AM presence pours through into the earth. The more infinite you feel that you are, the greater the pressure on the spout. Fear not, I AM here to see that you bring forth life abundantly. Feel infinity pouring through you. Let it flow knowing your source is limitless. You can have it all.

June 13 WELCOME ALL

Your Spirit does its work in silence. In the silence your love is drawing others to you. In the silence welcome all that come to you, for they are drawn to you by me, by sensing your divine consciousness. Greet them with joy, for they are part of what I have planned for you. Let no one feel unwelcome. Yet, do not try to figure out my plan for you or my timing. Just know that everyone that you are drawing to you has his or her place in what you have to do. Each of them is my presence. Welcome all. Gladly share your riches, your time, and your spirit with them all. Give all you can to others, and watch how it returns to you tenfold.

June 14 LOVE FEAR TO DEATH

Even when I was Jesus I was tempted with fear. When I said "Let this cup pass from me," I was feeling fearful. Fear is the ego's temptation to make you believe in a sense of separation.

Fear is really a cry for love. Divine love is what takes place when you recognize your true self, the I AM. Acknowledge your oneness with me, the Christ of your being, and fear will have no place in you. Don't resist fear. Love it to death. Love it to death by loving yourself, by knowing yourself as the Christ of you. When you love yourself you are looking in a mirror. When you know that everything is in divine order you are loving God.

June 15 TAKE HOLD OF ME

Take hold of my presence in you. Take a hold of your inner Spirit. I AM closer to you than breathing nearer than hands and feet. I AM that within you that takes hold of the peace, the joy, the protection, the companionship, and the fulfillment of all that your soul has to give to you. Receive the gift of yourself that I AM handing you. Feel my everlasting arms wrapped around your every endeavor, your every desire, and your every purpose. When you have taken hold of me the you that appears in the world and your invisible divine I AM Self are joined in union. Hold me in your heart and I will lead you this day into heaven.

June 16 GUARD YOUR LOVE

Love is your life. Love is who you are. Without love you are a branch that is cut off and is withering. When you are loving there is nothing that cannot happen through or as you. Protect your ability to love with your life, for life is lifeless without love, and that is true of everyone you know. Have compassion for those who are unable to love. At the same time be sure you are not refusing anyone your love. Someone may be depending on your love for life. In return appreciate those who offer you their love, and protect what they offer you with your life. Put love before all else. Nothing means anything without love, for God is love and that is what I AM.

June 17 CALL ON MY NAME

What did I mean when I, as Jesus, told you to ask what you would in my name, and it would be granted? Ever since I became Christed the name Jesus has been shorthand for I AM consciousness, for the Christ Spirit. Names are only symbols representing the consciousness that they symbolize. When you call on Jesus remembering the Spirit that the name symbolizes, then all that I AM is there to help you and guide you. So just call on my name. Say “Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,” “Christ, Christ, Christ,” or “I AM, I AM, I AM,” they all mean the same thing, and let that name carry you into the Spirit. Now, call on me and I will answer.

June 18 SEE YOURSELF AS THE POINT OF LIFE

See yourself as that point in life where Heaven and earth meet. My Spirit, the Christ Spirit, celebrates that meeting place between the spiritual and material worlds. As a divine human, you are the point where heaven and earth make contact. Let go of all thoughts about spiritual truth or material well being and just feel yourself being that point in life where the two worlds meet as you. That is the truth of your being. That is your holy being. You are the point of spirit where God and the flesh come together and become One. You are that point of light. Feel it.

June 19 FULFILL MY COMMANDMENTS

You cannot find peace when you come to the altar at the center of your being until you realize that the two sides of your being, the human and the divine, are like unto each other. Your mistake has been in thinking that your humanity was other than spiritual. When I was Jesus I gave you two commandments, to love cause and to love its effects, and I told you that they were the same, only seen from different dimensions. You cannot fully love yourself until your human identity is reconciled and made one with that which I AM, God appearing in the world. When you become aware that you are truly a divine human just as you are. Then you will see that it is all God now, then, and forever – and you will never feel alone again.

June 20 CONTINUE LEARNING

Every experience you have ever had, good or bad, is potentially a learning experience. You will remain on earth until you fully realize the fact that I, the Christ of you, am all there is of you. Each experience you go through can help you to learn that what you have thought was evil was only the belief that appearances were either good or bad. Appearances are deceptive, but I AM cause, and cause is invisible. Life and love are invisible; so take no anxious thought for the visible. Recognize that evil only exists for you when you believe that some appearance has power. Instead, all power is in me, your

I AM spirit self. Therefore, even though you appear as a human being you are all powerful for we are One.

June 21 SEE WITH YOUR SOUL

I have given you eyes so that you can freely function in the visible world. I have also given you a soul, which enables you to see into my Kingdom. Those who "have eyes and see not" are those who use their physical eyes and human minds to judge by appearances. Those who see the truth are those who let their soul's eyes interpret appearances. See with the eyes of love. Now close your human eyes and open your soul eyes in prayer and meditation. Be quiet now, and through your soul see that I AM presently appearing as all those who are about you, all that you have to do, and all that is taking place in your life.

June 22 WEAR MY SHIELD

My shield is gratitude. Gratitude builds a fortress of freedom in the face of every enemy. No evil can penetrate the presence of gratitude, because gratitude is an experience of my presence. Gratitude is the absence of doubt. Gratitude is your armor of oneness. Gratitude is your recognition of grace, of my I AM presence, and the flower of gratitude is joy. Now stop meditating and just spend a few minutes consciously remember all that you have to be grateful for. Rejoice in gratitude. Feel it, and watch how quickly the disturbances of this world melt away in gratitude's power of love.

June 23 TRY ANOTHER WAY

Underneath you are still wrestling with unresolved issues -- yesterday's traumas, small or large. Realize that they only exist as part of the past unless you re-create them by making them part of now. You may believe your future success or failure depends on your finding out right answers or what has caused your mistakes, but I offer you another way. It is my way, the I AM way. I offer you my love. Love has nothing to do with your need to find a reason for your failures. My love wipes out all the past and with it past ignorances. The past no longer has any hold on you. This is my gift. Accept it, and you will be accepting my life as your life, for I AM your Christ-life. I AM the other way.

June 24 EXAMINE YOUR INTENT

Once more you have come to your inner altar to pray. Once more, what is your intent? Intention comes from a Latin word meaning "to stretch out." Your intent is that to which you are stretching out. If you are reaching for something other than my Spirit, your intent is of this world. If your intent is to experience your divine presence, it is of my Spirit. If your intent is to fulfill the divine plan for your life peace will be yours. God is not mocked. Your intent is what you are stretching toward. It forms your future. Let the Spirit that I AM take over. Let experiencing your God Self be your intent. That inner stretching will pull you into Heaven.

June 25 INCLUDE IT ALL

Include all. Begin your day by realizing that no matter what the appearances may be, they are all included in God. If you are disturbed over something or some condition it means that at the moment you are excluding it from God's presence. if you have the eyes to see you will realize that no matter what you are experiencing, I AM appearing as what ever it is. Open your heart, your spiritual eye. Embrace your own being, and then include every experience in that embrace! Let the Christ presence within you include the universe. Let it include forgiveness. Include everything in your love and peace can't help but be yours.

June 26 GO BEYOND

In order for you to know that you are Spirit you had to go beyond thinking of yourself as just a human being, as just a physical body. Now take the next step and go beyond believing that there is any separation between the you that is in the world and the you that I AM. They are one and the same. Until you see that your personality is how the impersonal I AM appears in the world you have not gone beyond limitation. Trust that you represent the divine "I AM" in action and in form as well as in Spirit. Fully experience the infinity of yourself as being all that God is. You are.

June 27 REJOICE

This is my promise. I started a good work in you, and I will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. What is that day? It is the day when the human Jesus and the divine Christ of you are experienced as One. Yes, this is the day the Lord has made. Rejoice in it. The place on which you stand is Holy ground. Rejoice, My words cannot be set aside. Rejoice that the Holy ground on which you base your life is your Christ spirit. Rejoice knowing that this day is special. Rejoice, it is the day that I have created for you to fulfill the good work I have started in you. Rejoice I AM your divine consciousness, and I have ordained you. I AM fulfilling your lifetime commission at this very moment.

June 28 LET YOUR MIND BE MY MIND

Sin, sickness, lack, and disharmony may exist in the mind of an unillumined man, but that is not your higher mind. You have that mind that was in Jesus the Christ, and in that mind sin, lack, and disease do not exist. They only exist in the mind of ignorance. You no longer have to stay in that mind. Because of the fact that I AM your consciousness, you possess the mind that is divine. In my Christ spirit, sickness, fear, confusion, or lack cannot exist for you, because at the level of your higher consciousness they do not exist. Put all fear-filled thoughts out of your mind. Shift gears into your Kingdom-mind. Contemplate my I AM presence as being your presence, and behold my glory as your glory.

June 29 EXCHANGE LOVE

You do not have to purchase my Love by your prayers or by your actions. You do not have to rise above human caring, beyond your feelings or concerns in order to earn my Love. Those human desires are what pushes you into recognizing the divine/human that you are. Do not fear whether you are being spiritual enough or not. Our time together has no other purpose than for there to be an exchange of love between us, your inner self and your outer self. I AM all of you, the human and the divine. Love all of yourself and you are loving me, the I AM. Love is what matters - what materializes. Smile, and let the gift of love be your gift to yourself.

June 30 CELEBRATE

Here I AM again! Put all your petty concerns aside and let's celebrate our union, the union of your divinity and your humanity. Remember, that which God has joined together no man can put asunder. We do not share these moments in order to create something new, but rather to celebrate that which already is, our oneness. The tiding of great joy I came to bring you is that it is all right to be human. Let all other thoughts go, and rejoice in the complete all-inclusive Divine plan that binds us together in a perfect union. Celebrate our oneness. You are all that God is right now. Celebrate.
